Miss Lee is passing her vacation at Honolulu.

The fourth was very quietly observed in Lahaina.

The Claudine sailed on Tuesday night, instead of Wednesday.

The Mikahala sailed three hours earlier than usual, last Saturday.

Postmaster Wall visited friends in Wailuku on Sunday and Monday.

Miss Townsend, of the Baldwin Settlement House, is at Haiku, Maui.

Henry Hose, while going in bathing last Saturday, cut his foot on a broken bottle.

Mrs. R. P. Hose and her daughter Adeline have returned from the Island of Hawaii.

Flags were displayed in front of the Court House and on Mrs. Allen's motor boat from Honolulu.

Meetings on the streets, for the discussion of the prohibition question, have been held several times recently.

At the Wailuku Union Church Sunday July 10th several new members will be received. The communion will be celebrated.

The neat quarterly calendar printed by the Maui Publishing company will be in the pews of the Union Church Sunday evening.

Senator Hayselden, Wm. L. Decoto, George Freeland, J. E. Gannon and others enjoyed the celebration at Wailuku on the fourth.

Mrs. L. F. Folsom commenced her duties as organist of Holy Innocents' Church, and Superintendent of the Sunday School last Sunday.

The Catholic Ladies Aid Society desire to thank all who assisted in making a success of the entertainment at the Town Hall, Saturday, June 25th last.

The Rev. Leopold Kroll and family, Mr. Robert Law, Mrs. C. Hayselden, Mrs. Kate Hayselden and her nieces, Mrs. Nora Gannon and her child, sailed for Honolulu last week.

Seven of the best horses which took part in the Spreckels Park meet were lamed in the right front leg. The sharp turn at the southeastern end of the track is responsible for it so experts say.

Eddie Fernandez gave an exhibition of moving pictures at the plantation carpenter shop, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings. There was a change of program, and the show was quite interesting every night.

The annual report of the Maui Aid Association was printed last week by the Maui Publishing Company and shows a lot of work undertaken for the Maui Evangelical churches last year. Copies may be obtained from Rev Mr. Dodge.

Seventh Sunday after trinity July 10, at the Church of the Good Shepherd, a celebration of the Holy Communion at 7 a. m., Sunday school at 10, morning prayer and sermon at 11. The evening service at Puunene Club House at 7.45.

Judge Daniel W. Burchard and Miss Nellie G. Smith were married at high noon, Wednesday last, at the residence of Judge Quarles of Honolulu, Rev. John T. Jones officiating. Bride and groom returned to Wailuku by the Lurline yesterday.

At the 88th annual conference of the Hawaiian Evangelical Association, Rev. C. G. Burnham of Lahaina gave an interesting address, his subject being "Giving for Missions; What do we owe?" Mr. and Mrs. Burnham returned from Kailua on June 30.

David White, son of Rev. E. W. White, died at 10 p. m. Monday. There was a large attendance of friends at the funeral on Wednesday morning. The deceased was a bright and promising young man, and his early departure is deeply regretted. He was 21 years of age.

A graduate of the Kamehameha School he had been attending Oahu College and was to graduate in another year.

Mr. Chas. G. H. Braun, formerly foreman of the Wailuku fire company, blew in from Hilo to take in the fourth of July races at Spreckels Park, and was around renewing old acquaintances. He is looking well, and all of his many friends were mightily pleased to see him again.

After Senator Coelho's return from his last campaign tour through Eastern Maui it was bruited about that he will seek senatorial nomination from the republican convention. He has been dallying with democrats and home rulers but the fusionists are reported to be getting ready to put up a senatorial candidate from their own party.

The swimming tank of the Alexander Settlement is being rapidly completed by contractor Patterson and will probably be ready for use the first day of next month. The specifications for the new gymnasium are being submitted this week. The first places have been carefully reviewed by the gymnasium committee and several of the Maui men who know what a good gymnasium is.

Baseball Game--Wailuku and Kahului.

A good sized crowd including a number of fans from Honolulu gathered Sunday afternoon at Well's Park, Wailuku, to take in the baseball game between the Kahului team and Wailuku team. Supervisor Lyons pitched the first ball while Manager Mountcastle of Kahului tried to wield the bat. He failed to get onto Lyons's curves.

The Kahuluis were first to bat and scored three runs in the first inning whilst the Wailukus failed to make a run until the fourth inning when they loaded four runs. After locating Pedro's drops and curves the Wailuku boys kept the Kahului fielders busy hunting for batted balls in the neighboring canefields, and improved the score by annexing a run each in the sixth and seventh innings in spite of Ah Yau getting in the box. In the ninth inning the Kahului boys picked up enough of D. Espinda's curves to gather in two more runs, making the score five for Kahului to six for Wailuku.

Lani Lemon of Honolulu umpired the game, and all the boys are saying he made the squarest decisions and the best of any that umpired ball games on Maui, which is saying a great deal without actually wanting to get a pull on his leg, for a future game.

After the races Monday afternoon the two teams lined up at the Kahului Park and put up another good ball game. The Wailukus went to bat first and got a goose egg, and the Kahuluis having located Espinda's curves landed six runs which put them so far in the lead that Espinda was displaced by W. E. Bal Jr. who kept the Kahului team from scoring until the last half of the eighth inning when they made two more runs. The Wailukus made a run in the second inning, two in the fourth and two more in the ninth inning which left the game in favor of Kahului. Score eight to five.

E. Fernandez umpired the game satisfactorily to all concerned. With the exception of the first inning it was a very good game, although there were a few who grieved the Wailukus a bit in the first inning, but then after getting on the wrong side of the bats at the races it is nothing but natural that a few in a good sized crowd will get grouchy.

Kaai's quintet club furnished good music at both games, and the gate receipts totalled over $200.00, but genial Billy Mountcastle thinks, the two teams should come together again and play the rubber, which may not be the proper technical term according to Spaulding but is certainly the term for it according to Hoyle.

Paia Celebrates Fourth of July.

The people of the neighboring town of Paia celebrated Independence Day with a luau at which over 2000 laulau of beef and pork were served, besides, chicken, fish and other edibles used in the making of a real Hawaiian luau. There were six tables of a hundred feet length each, tastefully decorated with ferns, ti-leaves and greenery set under a tarpaulin covered pavilion, the sides of which were of green coconut leaves, and the interior festooned with bright colored bunting and flags. Practically all of the people of Paia and Makawao were on hand to celebrate the great American holiday.

Speakers invited by the leaders of the Maui Prohibition League made speeches to the crowds that had gathered from the platform of the railway station, while the Puunene team played a match with the Paia team in the nearby tennis court. The match resulted in the Puunene team getting the best of the Paia team by a score of 148 to 139.

At a polo game during the day, Rev. E. B. Turner was struck in the forehead by a polo ball inflicting a very painful wound which bled profusely.

Jeffries No Match For Negro.

RENO, Nevada, July 4:—Jack Johnson, the negro pugilist, is still the world's champion, he having established his right to the title by knocking out Jim Jeffries today in the fifteenth round of a bloody and one-sided fight.

At the end Jeffries was hanging on to the ropes and his seconds had thrown the towel into the ring. The finish was an exciting one as the spectators rushed in to stop the fight before the count of ten had been completed by the referee.

The negro blocked the old champion's blows at every stage and punished him terribly during the last five rounds.

In the fifth round Jeffries' eye was completely closed.

The end began in the thirteenth round, after which the experts advised Jeffries to stay without fighting and try to gain time.

At the end of the final round Johnson attacked Jeffries savagely, delivered three knock downs that sent Jeffries against the ropes. Each time the big Californian staggered to his feet and after the third Johnson sprang tiger-like and landed a left on the jaw that sent Jeff down and out. The spectators saw it coming and jumped into the ring.

Johnson won $72,600, or sixty per cent of the purse of $121,000. Tex Rickard, the referee, adding a bonus of twenty thousand dollars for the moving pictures. Jeffries share is $60,000.

One of the incidents of the morning at the camp of the champion, Johnson, was a visit from Prince Kuhio, Delegate from Hawaii, and Col. Sam Parker of Honolulu.—Bulletin.

The Supervisors have awarded the contract for a teacher's cottage at Kaunakakai, Molokai, to Albert Trask, whose bid was $1,350. Cyrus T. Green was the other bidder and his figures were $1,985.

Henry Jeffries put in a bid to construct the additional upper story to the County building for $14,992. The board rejected the bid, being in excess of the appropriation.
